

INTERNATIONAL INTERNSHIP PROGRAM

University of Wisconsin – Madison

GUANGWAI-PACELLI HIGH SCHOOL VIRTUAL ADVISING INTERNSHIP

CHINA, FOSHAN

Guangwai-Pacelli High School

(<https://www.usuniversitypathways.com/schools>) (GPHS) is an American high school offering an English-immersion experience to Chinese students in a boarding-school environment. Located in Foshan, China, GPHS is a partnership between Pacelli High School (PHS) in Stevens Point, Wisconsin and U.S. University Pathways (USUP) in Fitchburg, Wisconsin.

Grounded in Pacelli High School’s standards, GPHS is a model of Wisconsin instructional practices. Instruction is provided by highly capable teachers who create a rigorous and relevant learning environment. GPHS currently has about 50 students of its own, but it shares a campus with Guangwai Foreign Language School, a comprehensive primary, middle, and high school. The entire enrollment is approximately 3,000.

Students at Guangwai-Pacelli are planning to go to college abroad. The Virtual Advising Intern will assist with the following:

INTERNSHIP TYPE

IIP Cultivated for UW Students

ELIGIBILITY

- Freshman, Sophomore, Junior, Senior

WIP ONLINE COURSE ENROLLMENT

Recommended

HOST ORGANIZATION

Guangwai-Pacelli High School

FIELDS

Education, Education & Curriculum Development

- advising high school students about college life and academics
- practicing English for conversational and professional settings
- assisting with homework
- helping with college applications and essays
- attending team meetings as necessary

Virtual advising will take place via VooV Meeting. The intern will communicate with their supervisor through email, VooV, or WeChat.

QUALIFICATIONS

REQUIRED

- Good oral and written communication skills
- Continuing UW-Madison student, sophomore status or higher
- Good academic and disciplinary standing

PREFERRED

- Resiliency & high level of maturity and ability to thrive in new and sometimes difficult situations
- Positive attitude
- Organizational, time management, and problem-solving skills

LEARNING OBJECTIVES

We have overall Goals and Expectations for Study Abroad Participants (<https://studyabroad.wisc.edu/get-started/>), covering the personal, academic and professional aspects of study abroad. Additionally on this program, you can:

- Be confident holding meetings with young people across the world
- Learn about the Chinese education and culture in China

DIVERSITY & INCLUSION

UW Study Abroad is committed to providing quality study abroad and domestic study away programs for every UW-Madison student. We work strategically to identify, address, and remove barriers that may prevent participation and to provide a welcoming and inclusive environment for students. Our staff actively engages with students, faculty, and staff from diverse backgrounds and prioritizes the continuous development of our

PROGRAM DURATION

Approximately two months from mid/late-May to mid-July

NUMBER OF PARTICIPANTS

1-2 UW-Madison students

ESTIMATED WORK HOURS PER WEEK

5 hours; Monday-Thursday mornings 7-8:30am (evenings in China) though exact hours can be discussed with organization

APPLICATION DEADLINE(S)

2/21/2021

knowledge and cultural competence. We also recognize the importance of increasing access to study abroad for historically underrepresented student populations. We are committed to diversity and inclusion so that every student can engage with and understand their identity through a new lens and continue to develop and make progress on their personal, professional, and academic goals.

---

Academics >

Life Abroad >

Logistics >

Cost & Funding >

Student Voices >

Apply Now >

LOCATION

This is a remote internship in which you will be collaborating with a multinational team working from the United States and China.

Questions or Comments? internships@international.wisc.edu (<mailto:internships@international.wisc.edu>)

For more information, please visit our website at: <http://internships.international.wisc.edu/>

(<http://internships.international.wisc.edu/>)

261 Bascom Hall | 500 Lincoln Drive | Madison, WI 53706-1314 | Phone: 608-261-1017 (tel:608-261-1017)